

SOCIETY

Owen-Chaney.

Mr. Jesse Owen and Miss Vina Chaney drove to Lexington Thursday morning, where they were married at the residence of Rev. J. W. Porter. Miss Chaney is a daughter of Mr. J. W. Chaney, and one of Winchester's most attractive young ladies. Mr. Owen is a son of Mr. Perry Owen, and one of our most successful young business men. He is proprietor of the store at the northeast corner of Main and Washington streets. A dinner will be given to the newly married couple Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Owen at their home in South Park.

The young people will go to housekeeping at the residence already built by the groom, on Kentucky street. With a host of friends, we join in congratulations.

Basket Ball.

The Girls' Basket Ball Teams at the College had another of their series of tournaments, Wednesday afternoon. Crescents vs. Lemons; score 14 to 2. Cardinals vs. Grasshoppers; score 4:2.

There is much rivalry among the teams for the championship, and each fight is a hard one. At present, the Crescents are ahead.

Broom Ball.

There was a large crowd at the Auditorium last night to see the great Broom Ball game; Lexington vs. Winchester. The excitement was great, and the large audience cheered to a finish.

We feel very proud of our Auditorium and are glad to have strangers come, and see what we can do.

Mrs. Roll Ratliff and Mrs. Curtis Evans entertained with a "Euchre," this afternoon.

Miss Alice Porter entertained the Literary and Social Club, to-day.

Miss Mary White will entertain the Euchre Club, to-night.

Mr. Tom Hampton will entertain the Bridge Club, to-night.

Mrs. Gus Brooks will be hostess for the Bridge Club, Saturday afternoon.

The ladies of the Episcopal church will have a sale Friday morning at 10 o'clock at Kidwell's Drug Store. They will have all kinds of eatables, fancy work and candy.

No invitations will be issued for the dance on the 24th, and those wishing to secure tickets of admission for friends should call on Mr. Ed Smith.

The ladies of the Baptist church will have a sale at Mr. T. S. Bush's store, on Saturday.

SUCCESSFUL CHASE AFTER YOUNG LOVERS

Will Gray and Lutie Coleman Will Not Be Married if Girl's Father Can Prevent it.

OWINGSVILLE, Ky., Dec. 17.—Will Gray and Lutie Coleman daughter of George Coleman, stole a march on the old folks Tuesday night when they eloped to get married. Coleman learned of the affair soon after they left and telephoned to every railroad station in the county to have them apprehended, but morning dawned and the young folks are still missing. It was learned this morning that they had started to Preston Station to take the train, but finding out that a party was in pursuit they dodged into the woods and concealed their horses. It has not been learned what direction they took after that. Coleman knew that they were planning to get married and had secured a ticket for his daughter to send her to Washington to prevent her from getting married.

The couple were arrested last night by Chief of Police, Ollie James, at Salt Lick, after they had wandered through the woods for the past twenty-four hours. They were just getting ready to leave on the train.

MOUNTAIN COUPLE WED IN LEXINGTON.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Dec. 17.—Mr. S. T. Hattan and Mrs. Louisa Banks, of Calla, Breathitt county, came to the city yesterday and were united in marriage by Rev. I. J. Spencer at the Central Christian church parsonage at 7 o'clock last night.

The bride had previously been married, but yesterday was the first time Mr. Hattan has ventured on the matrimonial sea. He has been employed for the last two years at St. John's Parish, La. The happy couple spent the night as guests at the Leland Hotel and will return this morning at 7:30 o'clock over the Lexington and Eastern road to Breathitt county, where they will spend a few days before going to Louisiana.
